

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

ANGELA TORGERSON,

3:21-cv-00452-LRH-CSD

Plaintiff,

ORDER

v.

STATE FARM MUTUAL
AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendant.

On June 14, 2023, the court issued an order regarding a discovery dispute between the parties on a Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice for State Farm. (ECF No. 58.) The court's order pertained to Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice with 24 topics (ECF No. 55 at p.13-14). The parties then contacted chambers via email to request clarification of the court's ruling. The parties submitted an email that references topics of dispute between the parties are topics 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 of the Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice that contains only 18 topics.

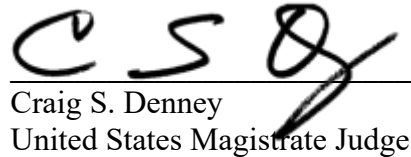

The parties seek clarification about "which topics, of the 18 listed in Doc 56 at [p]18-20 will be allowed at the deposition." However, ECF No. 56 is the court's order directing Plaintiff to file a response to the discovery motion. It appears the parties are referring to the Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice that has 18 topics in "Ex. C" of defendant's motion (ECF No. 55, Ex. C, p.17-19).

2 The court provides the following clarification in its ruling. The court GRANTS IN PART
3 Defendant's motion for protective order under Rule 26(c) for deposition topics 6-12, 16-17. For the
4 reasons previously stated in its order (ECF No. 58), the court finds those categories are overbroad and 5 unduly burdensome. The defendant's motion is DENIED insofar as State Farm asks the court to 6 preclude the Rule 30(b)(6) deposition in its entirety. The Rule 30(b)(6) deposition of State Farm may 7 proceed with topics 1-5, 13-15, and 18.
